

Full Time/Part Time Servers

Overview

EatNic is a unique restaurant concept - an all scratch kitchen serving new American fare, international classics, and cherished local family recipes, accompanied by an ever-changing menu of special dishes selected daily by our chefs. Our team sources the finest seasonal ingredients from local farmers and producers whenever available, so our guests can enjoy food as it was meant to taste natural, fresh, vibrant and full of flavor. It is our mission to make the farm-to-fork experience casual, interesting & fun for all our guests.

Why Join Our Team

This is a unique opportunity to join, learn and work side by side with John Scardapane, a 30- year restaurant veteran. The originator and former Chairmen and CEO of the Nation's largest and most successful Salad Chain, Saladworks. John grew Saladworks from one location to more than 100 successful restaurant locations, and now he's looking to share this extensive experience with you. EatNic's Executive Chef, Tim Courtney is a veteran of the Farm to Table movement, with an exceptional dedication to serving a rich bounty of local ingredients and supporting the community of local farmers and producers, this commitment to quality lets our guests enjoy truly flavorful tasting food. Their passion and steadfast commitment to the highest hospitality standards and product knowledge will breed an exceptional working environment that you'll look forward to every day.

EatNic is a fast paced restaurant looking for professional, polite, hardworking people who love to learn about the food industry. We are looking for both Full time and Part time servers.
